

"THE LAND OF LONG AGO."

APR -2 1918
Split-Reel  1181

"THE LAND OF LONG AGO" is a split-reel scenic showing Stratford-on-Avon, Shakespeare's birthplace. The house where the great writer was born is still standing. We see the school where the bard was educated. Among the other interesting scenes are the Cottage of Shottery, where Ann Hathaway lived, Harvard House, Kenilworth Castle, Warwick Castle, and the Holy Trinity Church, where Shakespeare is buried. Stratford-on-Avon is also the home of Marie Corelli, the novelist.
